

Margaritis Schinas

Greek nationality

European Commission Vice-President for Promoting our European Way of Life

2019-present

Deputy Director-General, Directorate-General "Communication" (DG COMM), European Commission

2015-2019

Chief Spokesperson, European Commission

2014-2019

Resident Director in Athens – Head of Greece Operations, European Commission (DG ECFIN)

2013-2014

Deputy Head of the Bureau of European Policy Advisers (BEPA), European Commission

2010-2013

Special adviser directly attached to the Director-General (DG COMM)

2009-2010

Member of the European Parliament (ND/EPP).

2007-2009

Head of Cabinet to Commissioner Markos Kyprianou, responsible for Health and Consumer Protection

2004-2007

Deputy Head of Cabinet to Vice-President of the European Commission Loyola de Palacio, responsible for Transport, Energy and Relations with the European Parliament

1999-2004

Head of Press & Information, European Commission Representation in Greece

1994-1999

Member of Cabinet to Commissioners Matutes and Oreja (successively)

1993-1994

Policy Coordination and Information Unit, DG 7 (Transport), European Commission

1990-1993

M. Sc. in Public Administration and Policy, London School of Economics and Political Sciences, London

1987

Diploma of Advanced European Studies (D.A.E.S) in European Public Administration, College of Europe, Bruges, Belgium

1986

LLB, Law School, University of Thessaloniki

1985